

ENGLISH MILITANT IS HELD PRISONER

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst Prisoner at Ellis Island Under Order of Deportation

AWAIT THE ISSUE OF APPEAL

An Appeal Is Immediately Taken After Board Orders Her Exclusion—Caminetti to Consider Case in Washington Today

SUFFRAGETTE IS VERY INDIGNANT

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, foremost English militant suffragette who reached America today on the liner Province to appeal for the sympathy and support of the American people in the "revolution" for which she is fighting, she says, is a prisoner tonight at Ellis Island under order of deportation, awaiting the issue of an appeal which is expected to be decided tomorrow at Washington. With Miss Reita Childre Dorr, another of the arriving English militants, who was "voluntarily detained" that she might be with her leader, Mrs. Pankhurst, occupies the commission's suite of two rooms in the administration building. They are the same rooms in which Cipriano Castro, former Venezuelan dictator, was detained while his case was pending. From the broad windows overlooking the harbor Mrs. Pankhurst can see the statue of Liberty.

Mrs. Pankhurst was detained by an immigration inspector on her arrival here and was at once taken before a special board, which after examining her decided that because she had been convicted abroad for acts involving moral turpitude, she was an undesirable alien. The board ordered her exclusion. An appeal was immediately entered and immigration Commissioner Caminetti will consider the record in her case tomorrow in Washington.

May Be Allowed to Speak.

Mrs. Pankhurst's representatives expressed confidence that whatever might be done about the appeal, the English militant would be released under bond for three weeks so that she might fill her speaking engagements here. Mrs. Pankhurst tonight still had another recourse under consideration.

"Even if the appeal fails we have the habeas corpus proceeding," she said.

Because of the uncertainties surrounding the immediate course of the proceedings in her case the meeting at Madison Square Garden set for tomorrow night at which Mrs. Pankhurst was to speak was today postponed until Monday night. Mrs. Pankhurst herself seemed to have doubt that she would be freed in time to speak at that meeting. She was on the point of starting a "hunger strike" when she heard that the order of deportation was issued. But on learning that a speedy decision on the appeal was probable she broke fast and served a chicken and a pot of tea which she had requested.

Arouse Her Indignation.

Three things in connection with the examination of Mrs. Pankhurst seemed particularly to arouse her indignation. One was that she was accused of moral turpitude, another that the proceedings were in secret and the third that her "political opponents" in England had, in her belief, furnished much of the information used by the special board in questions put to her. Her examiners were courteous "more or less" she admitted.

"The climax came," she declared, "when they said I was guilty of moral turpitude. Then it was that I said 'your ancestors were guilty of moral turpitude when they threw the tea into Boston harbor.' It reminded them that Charles Stewart Parnell, Michael Davitt and John Redmond, Irish political leaders, who were actually convicted under the same act of parliament under which I was convicted, were received here with open arms, although they destroyed property and were guilty of acts of a political nature and convicted by parliament for them."

Never Advocated Murder.

Mrs. Pankhurst, according to the stenographic report of her examination admitted that she had made incendiary speeches in England, but firmly denied that she had ever advocated the taking of life.

"I have made speeches urging riot and rebellion and the destruction of property when necessary," the minutes quote her as saying. "I have always urged that care be taken against the destruction of human life."

Comes Here for 'Sympathy.'

Her object in coming here was that which the ancestors of present day Americans had in visiting Europe in the time of the revolution—"for support and sympathy." She freely admitted that she had several times come in contact with the English authorities and been imprisoned.

After the questioning was over and the newspapermen were permitted to talk with her, Mrs. Pankhurst made strong objections to what she termed the "star chamber" methods of the board of inquiry and expressed the opinion that action taken

HAS NOT RESIGNED OR FLED FROM CAPITAL

Provisional President Huerta Has No Intention of Resigning or of Fleeing the Capital

WOULD RE-ESTABLISH PEACE

Until His Successor Is Elected Huerta Will Attempt to Re-establish Peace "Within the Law If Possible" But to Get Peace

HAS MONEY FOR ALL REQUIREMENTS

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 18.—Provisional President Huerta has not resigned nor has he fled from the capital. When seen at the national palace at 5 o'clock this afternoon he said he had no intention of doing either.

"When I resign," General Huerta said, "it will be to seek a resting place six feet in the soil. When I flee the capital it will be to shoulder a rifle and take my place in the ranks to fight the rebels."

This was President Huerta's answer to queries as to whether there was any foundation for the reports which have freely circulated in the capital and found their way to the United States. General Huerta received the Associated Press correspondent with extreme cordiality and listened to the explanation of the motive for the visit.

"So it is reported that I have fled," said the president, "you can see for yourself that I am here at my post. To say that I have resigned or intend to resign is an absolute falsehood. I have no intention of resigning."

To Re-establish Peace.

"Should the elections, which will be held as I have promised, indicate another for the presidency, I shall step aside. Until that time you will find me here complying with my promises to the nation which are to re-establish peace within the law if possible, but to re-establish peace."

"I have money for my requirements," the president said. "Don't think that I haven't. Where did I get it? My secret," he responded, tapping his chest with a satisfied smile.

"But I have it."

On the question of pacification, he declared that before the end of the month the government would have retaken Torreon and made headway toward the pacification of the state of Durango.

"I have eight thousand men at Hipolito," the president said, "moving on Torreon and two thousand more are proceeding north from Zacatecas."

In reply to a suggestion that further rumors were afloat of the effect that a troop train proceeding to Torreon had been blown up he exclaimed:

"More lies! Nothing of the kind has occurred."

Enemies Start Rumors.

In the opinion of General Huerta the sensational rumors have originated with the enemies of the administration in the capital and elsewhere for the effect they would have with the revolutionists. General Huerta is working from fifteen to eighteen hours daily, sleeping at odd times when fatigue overtakes him. He adopts various ruses to escape from the scores striving to reach him with personal affairs. He slips out of unused entrances and takes round about routes to hide his whereabouts. Colonel Carlos Aguilera, his son-in-law, who is with him almost continuously, sought him in a half dozen places before locating him in the palace.

AMES J. HILL'S PRIVATE CAR NOT ATTACHED TO WRECKED TRAIN

Railroad Magnate's Car Is Attached to Train Traveling About an Hour Behind Wrecked Train.

LaCrosse, Oct. 18.—The story published today that James J. Hill of the Great Northern railroad was aboard his private car, attached to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy train, which was wrecked at Nelson, today was an error. According to information received here tonight, Mr. Hill's car was attached to train No. 47, traveling almost an hour behind the wrecked train.

In the wreck C. T. Ulbricht of Potosi, Wis., a fireman, was killed and eighteen other persons injured. Included among the injured were J. H. Quinlan, express messenger of Duquenois and Mrs. H. C. Short of Lansing, Mich.

THE WRONG MAN NAMED.

ADMIRERS OF SULZER PRESENT HIM WITH LOVING CUP AT THE EXECUTIVE MANSION

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 18.—There was red fire, oratory and music by a brass band at the executive mansion tonight when several hundred admirers of William Sulzer called to present him with a loving cup. A driving rain fell while the marchers were enroute to the mansion. A few words of consolation only to be interrupted by Mrs. Sulzer.

"The action of the court is the least of our troubles," she said. The crowd began to cheer. One man cried out that Sulzer "would be back here next year," and at another suggestion there were cheers for "the next president of the United States."

Cheers for Mrs. Sulzer followed. Chester C. Platt, Sulzer's secretary, read a speech assuring Sulzer that he had been removed because he would not obey the bosses. Mention of the name of Charles F. Murphy brought hisses.

The cup was inscribed: "To William Sulzer, a victim of corrupt bossism, Oct. 17, 1913."

Mrs. Sulzer was presented with a bouquet.

Sulzer in a speech reiterated his assertion that his removal was due to his displeasing Tammany hall.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP PASSENGER TRAIN

TRAIN BEARING MINE GUARDS IS DYNAMITED AT COPPER CITY

Explosion Tears up Great Section of the Track as Train Is Stopped a Short Distance From the Spot—Federal Investigation Is Probable.

CALUMET, Mich., Oct. 18.—Detectives were working today on clues in connection with an attempt at Copper City in the copper strike district this morning to blow up a Keenaw Central passenger train which was carrying forty-two mine guards to the Mohawk mine and eighteen passengers to various Keenaw county points. Officers have a description of the man who is said to have lighted the fuse to a charge of dynamite which exploded and tore up a section of the track just as Engineer Cocking, who had seen the smoking fuse, stopped his train a short distance from the spot. So great was the force of the explosion that a piece of shattered rail was blown through the window of a house a block from the scene.

Following the arrival of mounted troops who drove back several hundred strikers who had surrounded the train, the mine guards were escorted to Mohawk by the militia. As the Copper City affair involves interference with the transportation of the mails it will be made the subject of a report to the postoffice department and a federal investigation is not unlikely.

TURNER FOUND NOT GUILTY OF MURDER BUT INSANE AT TIME

F. G. Farrell, Blind Spiritualist, Is Declared Guilty of Murder in Second Degree.

Murfreesboro, Ark., Oct. 18.—Not guilty of murder, but insane at the time crime was committed, was the verdict here today of a jury trying A. G. Turner for the murder of his wife and Miss Rhodie Carter. Turner confessed he administered poison to the women in a pacifier which he and the women were to die and go to the "spirit world."

Turner recovered. He said F. G. Farrell, a blind spiritualist, had held meetings in the Turner home and had invoked the spirit of Turner's dead son, who urged the living members of the family to "come over and join him."

Farrell was declared guilty of murder in the second degree yesterday. The state maintained that Farrell induced the formation of the suicide pact that he might get Turner's property.

WILL NOT LOSE HIS CONTROL OF BUSINESS

SONS WILL BE FORCED BY COURT TO RELINQUISH FATHER'S BUSINESS

Samuel Inman of Kansas City Left His Business in the Hands of His Three Sons While He Was Abroad and Upon His Return the Young Men Refuse to Give Him Back His Business.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 18.—Samuel Inman, 57 years, who upon starting on a trip to Europe two years ago and fearing something might happen to him before he could return, turned over his controlling interest in a local box factory to three sons, will not lose his control of the business. This was decided by Circuit Judge Bird here today. When he went abroad Inman divided his 27 box factory shares, valued at $60,000, between the sons equally. These and other papers were placed in a safe to be opened should the father meet misfortune. Mr. Inman alleged that on his return the sons, Thorne, Frederick S. and Samuel, Jr., refused to give him back his business.

"This is an exceptional case," the court said in his decision. "I will not see this old man who spent his life-time building up a business, dispossessed by three young men who believe they know more than he."

RETURN FROM SUMMER TRIP TO ENGLAND

Thomas D. Irlam and Nieces Greatly Enjoyed Ten Weeks' Trip.

Thomas D. Irlam and his nieces, Misses Cora and Lucy Irlam, have recently returned to Morgan county after a delightful visit in England. Just about ten weeks ago they sailed from New York on the Cunard liner Corona and went direct to Manchester, England. Practically all their time was spent in Lancaster, Yorkshire, Derbyshire and Cheshire. Mr. Irlam's native town was Glossop in Derbyshire and he was of course greatly interested in noting the changes which had taken place in the thirty-five years since he left England to establish a new home in the United States. He has sisters and brothers there and a number of nieces and nephews and in consequence he was very busy in visiting relatives and in going to various points of interest in the part of England mentioned. Mr. Irlam said Saturday that while people here were inclined to think that affairs were a little slow in England and not quite up to date judged by our standards that he found conditions otherwise and considers England and English people very much alive.

Returning the Morgan county tourists were passengers on the Empress of Ireland of the Canadian Pacific line and landed at Quebec. They visited Montreal, Niagara Falls and Chicago. The whole trip was one of great pleasure and Mr. Irlam feels very much benefited in health by his stay abroad and by the sea voyage.

DEDICATE IMPOSING BATTLE MONUMENT NEAR LEIPSI

Royalty of Four Countries Attend Ceremonies on Field of "Battle of Nations" Where Napoleon Was Defeated.

Leipzig, Germany, Oct. 18.—On the field of the "Battle of Nations," where just one hundred years ago the defeat of Napoleon by the allies virtually resulted in the liberation of Germany, there was dedicated today one of the most imposing battle monuments in the world. The ceremonies were notable even in this year of historic anniversaries in Germany.

The sovereigns of Austria, Russia and Sweden, the nations that fought with Prussia to break the power of Napoleon in Germanic Europe, sent their personal representatives, and all the federated princes and mayors of the German empire were present. Their host is King Frederick August III. of Saxony, sixth in line of direct descent from that of King August I. who fought with Napoleon against the allies; whose troops deserted to the allies on the decisive day and who himself, vainly appealing for terms, was taken to Berlin and kept a virtual prisoner for three years.

Largest in Europe.
The structure dedicated is today by far the largest and highest in Europe. It stands just south of Leipzig, near Prosschkeida, the village out of which the allies drove Napoleon on October 18, 1813, the decisive day of the "Battle of Nations." The fight had been raged for six days between the Austrians, Prussians, Russians and Swedes on the one side, and the French, aided by the Saxons and Wurttembergers on the other, when the deciding day came. On the following day Napoleon abandoned the contest, leaving behind 78,000 of his army of 180,000 men, 15,000 of them dead. The allies, at a loss of about 300,000, had made Germany free from foreign domination to the banks of the Rhine.

The idea of a monument on the battlefield was broached in the following year by Ernst Moritz Arndt, and found support from a number of prominent Germans and from a Russian diplomat. An organization was formed at Leipzig to keep alive the memory of the battle, but a king in captivity furnished grounds for abandoning the movement. The monument idea came up from time to time in the succeeding years, and in 1863, on the fiftieth anniversary of the battle, the foundation stone of a monument was laid.

Then came the wars of 1864, 1866 and 1870-71, and it remained for the German Patriots' association, formed in Leipzig in 1894, to take the matter up and carry it to a successful conclusion. Four years later the necessary money had been raised, a design by Professor Bruno Schmitz had been accepted and the first sod was turned for the work on October 18, 1898.

Nearly 300 Feet High.
The monument stands on a hill about 100 feet above the level of the surrounding country. It is approached by a flight of 110 steps hewn in granite. On the base of the monument at the head of the stairs is an imposing relief, 180 feet long and 60 feet wide, the work of Christian Behrens. In the center of the relief is a heroic figure of Saint Michael. On each side of him Furies with torches hover over a battlefield strewn with dead. Above, in letters six feet high, is the motto of the anti-Napoleon warriors: "Gott Mit Uns" (God with us).

The monument rises to a height of nearly 300 feet. It is reinforced concrete, faced with porphyry. On the ground level is a crypt, surrounded by eight gigantic stone masks, representing fate. In front of each mask stands two warriors, twice life size, holding the death watch. Above this crypt is a rotunda, enclosing the hall of fame. About the walls sit four figures, two male and two female, seven times life size. They represent Courage, Sacrifice, Exaltation and Belief. The figures are the work of Prof. Franz Metzner.

Around the outside of the domed cupola which surmounts the monument stand twelve gigantic warrior figures. The interiors of three of them are occupied by winding stairs and an elevator, giving access to a balcony near the top of the monument.

One striking thing is noted in connection with all the statues; not one represents any prince or sovereign. The uprising against Napoleon in 1813 was an uprising of the people, not of their rulers, and the new monument is a monument of the people. There is no personal note about it.

The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion, the dining room being in pink and white, the parlor in yellow and the hallway in white. An altar of green foliage and of pretty yellow chrysanthemums had been made in the parlor where the troth was plighted.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Nita Robertson sang "Oh, Perfect Day," Miss Annette Rearick, "Oh, Promise Me" and Mrs. Sarah Travers of Edwardsville gave a violin solo. Lohengrin's wedding march was used, played by Robert Boyd of this city.

The first to enter the parlor were Master Louis Mitchell Martin and John Albert Martin. Mrs. Cecil Montague of Springfield was the matron of honor. She wore a brown dress with hat to match. The first two wore pink gowns and the others light blue dresses. The bride wore a dress of brocade velvet dark blue and black with hat to match.

Both young people are from prominent Cass county families. The bride is a favorite socially and a musician of ability. The groom is a well-to-do farmer of the Ashland vicinity. The young people will take a wedding trip through the east.

Following the marriage an elaborate collation was served by Vickery & Merrigan of this city. Small favors of cake boxes with initials B. M. were given the guests. Vickery & Merrigan's orchestra furnished music during the hours.

THIEVES STEAL FROM AUTOMOBILE ON STREET.

Not content with visiting various private garages of the city and community, where inner tubes, outer tubes and other parts of automobiles were taken, thieves ransacked the automobile of Dr. Allen M. King last night as it stood in front of the public library. All the pockets were entered and everything turned upside down. Among the things missing was a new expensive tire gauge and a fine Indian robe. There were two robes but the less expensive one was left in the car. Dr. King is much chagrined by the theft and stated last night he would give $15 for the conviction of the guilty party.

MONARCH FOOD PRODUCTS

UNIFORMITY in quality of food products, grown in widely separated latitudes and subject to the uncertainties of climatic conditions, is a difficult attainment and only acquired by the most exacting and insistent efforts.

No matter what difficulties are encountered MONARCH never fails in uniformity. This refers to every product under the MONARCH brand.

Occasionally some other brand may be found satisfactory one season and utterly fail short the next.

Again, in other brands may be found an occasional package that is satisfactory, with no assurance that the next one will be equally good. The proof is against it.

In MONARCH PRODUCTS, whether one can or thousand, whether a single package or a carload, whether this year, last or next, you can bank on it that every article bearing the MONARCH LABEL will compare one with the other, like needles in a paper or coins from the mint.

We Sell Monarch Goods Once, The Quality Brings Them Back.

Have you ever given our Drug Department a comparative chance for your orders? Compare prices and qualities and the business will be ours.

Procrastination

Nowhere is the consequence of procrastination more disastrous than in the making of wills. Most of us conduct our financial affairs as if we were to control them indefinitely.

Then suddenly we are taken and some one is placed in charge of our estate whose particular business is to "close up" our estate quickly as required by law, whereas men frequently leave property which requires time and attention to preserve its value. Again perhaps some member of the family needs special provision.

The law which takes charge of an estate where the decedent left no will is a cast-iron affair built to meet general conditions and was never designed to meet particular cases. It could not be.

The law permits one by a will the widest liberty in directing the handling and distribution of his estate. One should write his plans and wishes into a will, choose an executor of approved capacity and responsibility and tell that executor the things he wants accomplished with his estate.

Your judgment tells you this should be done.

No doubt you have resolved to do it—sometime.

Delay in making a will has all too often left a family without proper protection and frequently has resulted in serious financial loss, needless litigation or great annoyance. You know this.

We will draw your will for you. Consult us in absolute confidence and without cost. Tell us what you want your estate to do and we will help you write your wishes into a will. Do it now.

Everything New That's Good

James McGinnis & Co.

THE JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL
Established 1843
Published by
JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL CO.

The selection of a county commissioner at the coming election is one that should not be lost sight of in this precinct, where the "wet" or "dry" question is all-absorbing. Morgan county, including Jacksonville, is governed by these commissioners, all of them representing one political party—Meers, Coultas, Roegge and McMillen. While we concede that good government should be the first consideration in our county affairs, yet fairness and equity would give minority representation, the men being equal in reputation and ability. The Republican candidate for commissioner is one of tried ability—Peter Megginson. The Progressive candidate, Wm. Mortimer, is well known, and a man of excellent reputation. Mr. Coultas, the present Democratic incumbent, is a candidate for reelection.

There is no man in Morgan county better known or more highly respected than Peter Megginson. He has served several terms as commissioner ably and well. A man of unquestionable honesty, his record in the past is a guarantee of his future course, if elected. He is a successful business farmer, and one worthy the fullest confidence and support. The position is a most important one, and voters are urged to use their privilege—to realize that it is a duty—to investigate the candidates and to vote for a commissioner in November. Peter Megginson is a man the Republican party is proud to have as its nominee—a man who courts public scrutiny, confident that the interests of the people of Morgan county will be safe in his hands.

Commissioner Knollenberg received a prize for a significant feat in a recent parade in this city—one simply displaying a bunch of obsolete, discarded junk, lamps and frames, taken from our own electric light plant. Each day a few more lamps are forced into the discard—no repairs can be purchased for them, and each day the dark area in the city increases. The wagon carried an object lesson that every citizen should ponder.

You may talk about the saloon as a club and a pleasant gathering place for the poor. You may talk about the saloon bringing to the city a certain class of men who want to do their Saturday buying where they can incidentally have a glass of liquor. You may talk about what could be done with the license money from saloons. None of these things, however, have anything to do with the case. The question is, will the welfare of the community be better served by saloons than without them? Will the saloon improve moral conditions here in Jacksonville? Will the open saloon with its constant invitation to form the drink habit be a good influence for young men? The saloon has not one single good thing to its credit and the evils charged to it are countless. The evidence is in, and it is all against the saloon.

Some women in Jacksonville do not want to vote even on the saloon question. They do not believe in suffrage for women. They want to leave politics and voting to the men. This matter of personal feeling, however, does not relieve them from responsibility. The state legislature put the law upon the statute books giving the right of suffrage and the women who do not vote and the women who do vote share responsibility in the result.

The Jacksonville Business Men's Protective association is the name of the organization which is backing the fight to secure the return of saloons to Jacksonville. This organization is not the Business Men's association which some months since was christened the Chamber of Commerce.

The past crop season has been one unusual in this section, and many farmers have been disappointed in the result of their efforts. The corn crop suffered from the unreasonable drought and the extreme heat—then an early frost caught some of the immature corn and ruined it as far as marketable value was concerned. Farmers had every reason to be discouraged, especially the owners of very high priced lands. Pastures literally dried up, and many hastened to get rid of the few cattle they held. Yet the rains came, gently and in a way that revived the grasses and the soil, to make conditions for sowing wheat almost ideal, to encourage every tiller of the soil. Then, too, the question of immature corn turned every one interested to the question of the best use to be made of it—how to conserve every ounce of a product that a few years ago would have been a total loss—and that led to the erection of hundreds of silos. Today farmers of Morgan county are almost as well fixed to care for cattle with this product—silo preserved—as when there has been a bumper crop. Prices offered for good corn are high and with almost every ounce of the poor corn and fodder utilized the farmer has not such a great reason to grumble. Above all, it is believed to be the beginning of a new era in the farming business. That on high priced lands, especially, newer, up-to-date methods will be more generally used, and that in the end this threatened failure of crops will be of great benefit to all as leading to greater efforts and better management.

When J. B. Lennon, long prominent in labor circles, said that the saloon must be rated either as a blessing or a curse, he spoke a truth. He spoke a greater truth, however, when he went on to say that no man had ever been found who would call a saloon a blessing. People and institutions are judged with fairness on their records. Future conduct estimates are based on past performances and not on promises. Judged by this rule the saloon can win not a word of commendation. The history of the whole liquor traffic is written in blood and tears. The record of the saloon is a record of law violation. A great percentage of crimes can be traced directly to the saloon. Men plot and consort to do evil, it is not in the lodge room, not in the family circle, not in the church, not even on the street corners. When officers of the law seek for the perpetrators of crime and for the men who planned the crime, they go to the saloons and the gambling joints. These two institutions go hand in hand and harbor the lawless. Whisky invites to crime and so when officers seek for criminals in saloons they follow a logical course of reasoning.

You, Mr. Voter, have no inborn or cultivated taste for whisky. You may have no son or relative who would be tempted if whisky were placed within easy reach. Yet, is that any reason why you should be willing to take the responsibility of placing the cup to your neighbor's lips by voting to have open saloons again in Jacksonville?

The saloon advocate will tell you that many people now send away for a quart of whisky where they formerly were content to take an occasional drink. There may be such cases, but far more numerous are those men who now that whisky is removed from easy reach have broken the drink habit and spend their money for something which does not wreck the mind and body.

There have been no saloons in Jacksonville for six years. That fact has added greatly to the desirability of Jacksonville as a residence city. It has added greatly to Jacksonville as an educational city. Students at local schools bring in thousands of dollars each year to spend with local merchants and the number of students has been increased largely because of the good name this city has as being a saloonless city.

Don't talk about the army of bootleggers doing business in Jacksonville. There is no such army. No doubt there are some bootleggers, just as there are some gamblers and thieves and pick pockets, but illicit liquor selling in Jacksonville is at the minimum stage. The licensing of saloons does not put an end to bootlegging, as can be proven in many an Illinois city today.

"How long before these aristocrats will try to regulate the poor man's program?"

The above quotation from a recent manifesto of the "wet" organization in this city, illustrates the threadbare arguments put forward in support of their cause. It sounds silly in this age to talk of "aristocrats" regulating the "poor man's program" in any sense—much less in the matter of personal habits. It is the average man in a city the size of Jacksonville (where we have no millionaires) whose vote made this city dry—the mechanic, the artisan, the workers, the men who, perhaps, see the clearest the evil results of the liquor traffic.

In 1907 districts 1, 2 and 3, representing the northern part of the city and precinct gave a dry vote of 386, wet 398; only 12 wet.

Districts 4, 5 and 6, the northwest part gave dry 561, wet 325, or 236 dry.

Districts 7, 8 and 9, the southwest part, dry 657, wet 332, or 325 dry.

Districts 10, 11 and 12, the southeast part, dry 592, wet 366, or 226 dry.

Can you see how the "aristocrat" interfered with the "poor man's program" in that vote? There must be a great number of that "aristocratic" class in the city—as it should be.

We have an unusually fine class of population and voters in this man's town, and that is the reason that at their first opportunity, while the saloon and saloon element were still in control, the aristocrats, by an overwhelming vote, decided to rid themselves of an incubus—the saloons and saloonatics that were determined to bring as many people as possible down to their own level.

The saloon and its policies were a stench in the nostrils of law abiding people at that time. Everyone could see and judge the lawlessness of the most of the people engaged in the traffic. Yet it is not surprising that after six dry years, and the absence from our city of licensed saloons, many may have lost their fear of the demon for with the atmosphere cleared and the stench not near so rank, some may forget. Remember the vote when the evil was cast out, so far as was legally possible, by a majority of 775.

Shall we term every dry voter an aristocrat? We are willing to concede that we have a lot of them in this town—men of pride and worth, and living in every quarter of the city, and in every line of business or trade, in the kitchen or on the streets—we have a lot of the best people on earth—and they not only look to their own well-being, but so far as they may, help their neighbors.

Mr. Bryan in his Waterloo speech said that the administration currency bill was framed in such a way as to be certain of opposition and disapproval of former Senator Aldrich. Yet the financiers agree that Nelson W. Aldrich has a greater grasp of the currency and whole monetary system than almost any other man in the country. Truly, Aldrich is not a politician of the "plain people variety," that is he is not nearly so good a mixer as Mr. Bryan, but when it comes to a matter of knowledge of banking and currency and money generally, Mr. Aldrich far overshadows the present secretary of state.

Monday morning an imposing delegation will leave Jacksonville for Springfield. This delegation could more properly be called a "Committee of Protest" for they will go to Springfield with the avowed purpose of protesting to Gov. Dunne because Morgan county has been apportioned such a very small share in the political spoils of the state. Possibly it would be more proper to call this the "official spoils committee" of Morgan county.

An appointment has been made with Governor Dunne for 11 o'clock Monday morning and James Kenny has been chosen as the chairman of the delegation. The original plan as indicated by the motion which was passed by the Morgan County Democratic Central Committee was to have two or three democrats from each voting precinct of the county on the committee. This plan has now been changed slightly so that now any good democrat who wants to go to Springfield and register a kick because Morgan county is almost jobless so far as the administration is concerned is welcome to join the procession. Governor Dunne's defense it is said is that he referred the matter of jobs in this district to Representative Morris and that Mr. Morris not feeling a great weight of debt toward Morgan county democracy proceeded to take care of some of his long-time friends in Sangamon county.

Incidentally this visitation may not serve to strengthen the cordial relations between Governor Dunne and Mr. Morris. One thing however is pretty sure to happen and that is that the Morgan county democrats will all return with the statement that Governor Dunne is a pretty good listener but that they really couldn't get very much satisfaction out of him in the way of promises or conversation. That the governor is a careful and good natured listener but somewhat sphinx like in his utterances is the general opinion among job seekers.

The latest prospective candidate named for the Jacksonville postoffice is John W. Clary, former county treasurer. Mr. Clary has been active in the democratic party for a number of years and may properly be classed amongst the "truly loyal." Meanwhile there seems to be some uncertainty as to just who will settle the matter of choosing a successor for Postmaster Reeve when his term expires next May. As before stated in the Journal, Senator Lewis wrote to one of the Jacksonville applicants that the matter was in the hands of Congressman Rainey. Since that time a number of the applicants have been very attentive in their visits to Mr. Rainey and now comes the information that Congressman Eliza Williams of Pike county recently made that flat and unqualified statement that the matter would not be decided by Congressman Rainey. It is presumed from this statement that Mr. Williams himself is expecting to have some influence in settling this question so important in the eyes of various Morgan county democrats.

It will not be very long now until safety island lights will give a very efficient appearance to the public square. One of these electric signal lamp posts will be stationed near

JACKSONVILLE DOWNS LINCOLN

LOGAN COUNTY LADS DEFEATED
BY SCORE OF 33 TO 0.

Local Eleven Puts Up Great Game and Outclassed Visitors at Every Stage of the Contest—Killbrow
Put Up Big Fight for the Locals.

Outclassed at every point of the game the Lincoln basketball team fell an easy prey to the Jacksonville High school eleven on Illinois field Saturday afternoon, the score being 33 to 0. Only once or twice did the visitors look dangerous, at which times Jacksonville took a brace that swept all doubts away. The machinery of the reported back field of the visitors fell hopelessly before the splendid interference of J. H. S. and their forward passes, while cleverly worked out, found an easy solution by Coach Buland's men. A fact clearly demonstrated from the game was the great improvement made by the local men since the contest with Alton. As the game progressed Jacksonville's line-up showed a number of subs, who played well and the experienced under real fire was a big help to them. Lincoln possesses some good material and had studied out some splendid formations, but they were met with such fast interference by J. H. S. that every attempt to reach goal by line plunges and end runs netted small gains. Only in the latter part of the contest did Jacksonville resort to the forward pass and it was used several times for great gains. Jacksonville also found copious holes in the visitor's line and the way some of the J. H. S. men were sent through would have done credit to a college team. A bright spot in the struggle by the visitors was their tackling, and in this respect they did some commendable work. They were real sports, however, and although they realized that the game was slowly slipping out of their hands, they kept up great courage and certainly played to the end. Naturally Killbrow was depended upon to put up a fast and hard game, which he did and the crowd was ever ready to give him the glad hand. Holmes showed up in best style for Lincoln and pulled off a number of commendable plays. Considerable time was lost in getting the game started because of four Lincoln players being delayed at the "Y". The game was a long drawn out one, so much time being taken out for fouled players and minor items, which is not so common when the season advances and the men become hardened.

Story of Game.

Lincoln won the toss up, and chose to defend the north goal. Holmes kicked off, Killbrow running the ball back for a good distance. J. H. S. was held for downs and Lincoln kicked to Haigh. The local men carried the ball down the line in good style until Killbrow saw a nice hole in the visitors' line and was sent through for a touchdown. Reynolds kicked goal; score 7 to 0. The ball again in play, Lincoln tried a forward pass Humphrey to Holmes, which proved a meager ground gain. J. H. S. held the visitors for downs. After an end run by Johnson and two good plays by Killbrow, Jacksonville lost the ball on a fumble, on the ten yard line. Lincoln kicked out of danger to Sutherland. Jacksonville was again held for downs. On a fake pass Holmes made a gain of twenty yards, followed by another gain by Humphrey, who made a good line plunge. In a forward pass Killbrow got the ball and in a spectacular run, with good dodging, covered about forty yards for a touchdown. Reynolds failed to kick goal, making the score 13 to 0.

When Illinois kicked off again Holmes got the oval and ran it back fifteen yards followed by a slight gain around right end by Lechleiter. Haigh intercepted a forward pass and Jacksonville held the visitors for downs. L. N. Wood caught a pretty pass for a good gain and the ball was being carried down the line in good style when the whistle blew for the first half.

Last Half of Game.

The third quarter opened with Lincoln defending the south goal. Holmes received the kick off, but made a fumble which was recovered by H. Gossett. Wood intercepted a fake pass and Jacksonville held the visitors for downs. L. I. Wood made a good gain by a forward pass, followed by a gain of ten yards by Johnson. At this point H. Gossett was relieved by Richards. J. H. S. worked the ball steadily toward goal when Killbrow went over for another touchdown, goal being kicked, making the score 26 to 0.

Jacksonville kicked off and in the scrimmage, L. Gossett received an injury to his knee and was relieved by Shay. Lincoln attempted two forward passes before Holmes got away with the ball, making a good fifteen yard gain. Lincoln by a succession of end runs and line bucks got the ball dangerously near goal when a forward pass was intercepted and Johnson kicking out of danger for the locals.

This was followed by a number of forward passes used by both teams during which time Haigh made a fine gain of thirty yards by a forward pass. At this point of the game Killbrow and Holmes had a mix up, which resulted in Sutherland taking Killbrow's place at full back and Dickson filled the hole made vacant by Sutherland. The locals again waded into their opponents and in some snappy plays got the ball close to goal when L. O. Wood made a touchdown. Reynolds kicked goal; score 27 to 0.

J. H. S. kicked to Holmes and both teams resorted to the use of forward passes with the gains in favor of the locals. Sutherland went out and Spears took his place. After a couple of good gains by Haigh, Woods caught a pretty forward pass and got away with it for a good gain. By fierce line bucks, J. H. S. made big gains when Spears was shot across the line for the final touchdown, goal being kicked, making the score 33 to 0. There was little doing the rest of the four minutes to play, Whitlock relieving Johnson and getting a hand in the last stages of the game.

The following was the line-up:

TO BUILD UP WOMAN'S COLLEGE LIBRARY.

Woman's College Guild Divide Organization Into Groups to Increase Efficiency of Work.

That the women of Jacksonville are awakening to a realization of their duty toward the city's educational institutions has been manifested in the organization of the Woman's College Guild. This body has a membership of almost one hundred composed not only of the alumnae of the college, but of women who are interested in higher education and who are loyal to any scheme to further it.

With a view to increasing the efficiency of the work of the organization it has been divided into groups, the first of which, Group A, held its first meeting of the year with its chairman, Mrs. A. W. Baldwin, on East North street Saturday afternoon with a large attendance of members and a very profitable as well as enjoyable time was spent. Group B will meet with Mrs. Thos. Hopper, Grove street; Group C with Mrs. William Cogswell, East College avenue, and Group D with Mrs. O. F. Buffe on West Lafayette avenue during the coming week.

The women are directing their energies toward the building up of the college library and formal programs will be largely done away with, the ladies meeting from month to month for work after the manner of the church and hospital aid societies. The November meeting of the Guild will be held at the college in preparation for a progressive bazaar which is to be held the second week in December. The January meeting will also be held at the college and this will be known as penny day. Slips holding a foot of pennies are being given out and the members hope to have all of them filled and returned by that day. A cordial invitation to all the women in the different wards to attend the group meetings has been extended and to become members of the guild. The officers are: Mrs. E. C. Carpenter, president; Mrs. F. H. Rowe, first vice president; Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe, second vice president; Mrs. Carrie Phillips, treasurer, and Miss Jeannette Powell, secretary.

A Ten Thousand Dollar Moving Picture Film, three thousand feet in length, portraying by motion photography the styles of the century in contrast with those of today will be shown to our friends and customers.

The title of the film is "Mrs. Carter Worthington's Dilemma." It portrays in an interesting and fascinating way the difficulties that our women encounter in their efforts to procure costumes, gowns and tailored suits that meet the approval of those who know style, fit and tailoring.

Mrs. Worthington has an annoying experience in search for a new costume in which to attend The Annual Costume Pageant of the Delaware Society and her troubles are solved by her bosom friend, Mrs. Lila Laskerfield, who has discovered the merits of PRINTZESS.

During the Costume Pageant, we will introduce on film the styles of the last century beginning with the girl of 1800 and proceeding by 10 year periods up to the present day.

The third reel will portray the visit of Mrs. Lila Laskerfield to the home of PRINTZESS and just what she saw while watching the making of a PRINTZESS garment. On the last reel we show a parade of living models, wearing the styles of the season, the very garments that you will see in our department.

AN INTERESTING VISIT.

E. R. Pelham Went to See Daughter in Montana and Then to the Site of His Army Service.

E. R. Pelham has returned from Montana, where he went to visit his daughter, Mrs. Mabel Moore. While in that region he visited the spot formerly occupied by Fort Buford at the mouth of the Yellowstone river, where he served four and a half years under Col. Hazen, whose widow afterward was married to Admiral Dewey. While there he met John Mercer, a member of his company and now an owner of 500 acres of good land in that vicinity where the garrison was located.

Mr. Pelham says it was wilderness then, not a ranch being known between Bismarck and the Rocky Mountains. Not far away was the scene of the Custer massacre and a gentleman of that region gave him some bullets picked up on that historic spot.

He says he had peculiar feelings when standing at a bend of the river and looking at the prospect before him. The channel has been shifted at that spot fully half a mile and where the stream flowed when he was there is now a thicket of willows. Of all the buildings which were there during his service only that occupied by Col. Hazen remains, all others having given way to advancing civilization. The hospital building used by the troops has been moved to Buford and is now the St. Elmo hotel.

Mr. Pelham much enjoyed his visit and especially meeting his company comrade and daughter.

TAKES OF DANDRUFF

HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try This! Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful—No More Itching Scalp.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected, or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

After a careful investigation of the effect of no license for six years in this city, resulting not only in the loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars, in population and in school enrollment, but also in a condition far worse for the boys and girls and all of the people of the city; the Business Men's Protective Association, realizing the financial and moral condition of the city, has planned a program for the improvement of streets, lights, etc., and at its regular meeting adopted the following ordinance, which they will ask the city council to adopt:

ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY WINS EASILY FROM NORTHWESTERN; STAGG'S CHICAGO MAROONS DEFEAT IOWANS 23 TO 6 PURPLE TEAM APPEARS IN POOR PHYSICAL CONDITION AND IS UNABLE TO MENACE THE ILLINI GOAL, THE STATE UNIVERSITY WINNING 37 TO 0

Northwestern Is Outclassed from the Start of the Contest and Can Do Nothing But Fight to Keep Score as Low as Possible—Illinois Backs Show No Advance Over Missouri Game—Iowa Gives Chicago Hard Battle Holding the Maroons After First Half—Other Football Results.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 18.—The University of Illinois easily won from Northwestern today by a score of 37 to 0.

Outclassed from the start there was nothing for the purple to do but try to keep down the score. The visitors seemed in poor physical condition and while they fought hard their efforts were fruitless to menace the Illini goal.

The Illini scored on the first play after Northwestern received the kick off. The purple punt from behind its own goal was blocked and Chapman of Illinois fell on the ball for a score. Northwestern was stiffened and held the Illini backs the rest of the period. In the second period Illinois scored three times. The introduction of a substitute backfield forward pass to Wilson that put the Illinois attack and no scores were made. Captain Rowe returned to the game in the fourth period when he kicked a field goal and made a forward pass to Wilson that put the Illini in striking distance. Illinois had recourse to little open work football and Northwestern's few efforts to forward pass were fruitless. The Illino's backs seemed to show no advance over the Missouri game and were slower in starting than a week ago.

Captain Rowe's plunges were fatal to the Purple line while Rue made much ground. Wilson and Armstrong at end were generally down the field and Northwestern was unable to make much headway returning punts.

The Purple players required much time to apply balm to their injuries while the Illini seemed fresh at all times.

First Period.
Illinois scored on the first play after Northwestern received the kick off. Patterson dropped behind his own goal to punt. The Illinois line poured through like water from a sieve and Chapman fell on the ball after Patterson's punt was blocked.

Rowe kicked goal. The rest of the quarter was without advantage to either side of the Purple gained considerable ground but never penetrated past the 37-yard line, where Patterson failed on a place kick.

Second Period.
In the second period Illinois scored two touchdowns on a succession of line backs by Schoelinger and the other on Pongue's brilliant dash through the Purple team for twenty-five yards.

Northwestern was able to gain little ground and the half was mostly played in Purple territory. The Illinois backs were generally able to make small gains and wore away the Purple defense.

Rowe kicked both goals.
Third Period.
In the third period the Illinois substitute backfield was introduced and was unable to score, although the entire period was played in Purple territory. Silkman failed on two forward pass attempts. The Illinois seemed to slow up, while Northwestern fought bitterly. Wagner ran the ball to the Purple 50-yard line just before the quarter ended.

Fourth Period.
The Purple was worn by the Illinois attack in the fourth period and the session was entirely in Purple territory. Captain Rowe place kicked a goal early in the period and this score was followed by a touchdown by Rowe who failed to kick goal.

Big Crowd Sees Iowa Defeat
MARSHALL FIELD, Chicago, Oct. 18.—Chicago beat Iowa in their annual game 23 to 6 here this afternoon. The game was played for the biggest crowd that ever witnessed a battle between the two teams.

Iowa showed unexpected strength and after the first half held Chicago on even terms. Gray was the star for the Maroons, scoring two of the touchdowns. Captain Norgren and Fullback Pierce also showed well in the struggle, making consistent gains through the visitor's line. Chicago relied upon straight football for their victory, only three times forward passes were resorted to.

Gross, substitute quarterback for Iowa, was easily the star for the defeated team. Taking the place of Parsons at the start of the second half through fighting spirit in the team and himself scoring the lone touchdown after a brilliant 60-yard run. Iowa used their entire reserve tricks in a vain effort to overcome Chicago's lead in the final quarter. They marched the ball down the field and were only halted when Coach Stagg removed the substitutes from the back field and replaced in their position.

Iowa Wins Toss.
Iowa won the toss choosing to defend the north goal. Chicago kicked to Iowa who received the ball on their 15-yard line and returned it twenty yards, by a series of line backs Iowa carried the ball to Chicago's 10-yard line. Chicago's line was unable to check the onslaught of Iowa's backs.

The quarter ended with the ball in Chicago's position.
Chicago received the ball on kick-off in the second period and had little difficulty in returning to Iowa's 20-yard line. Gray went around Iowa's left end for Chicago's first touchdown. On the next few minutes Iowa's line was unable to hold. Chicago advanced the ball to Iowa's 30-yard line. Gray went around right end for Chicago's second touchdown. Chicago kicked goal.

At the beginning of the third quarter substitute halfbacks Kennedy and Fitzpatrick made consistent gains for Chicago, carrying the ball to Iowa's 10-yard line. Chicago scored with a place kick. Gross, substitute quarterback who relieved Parsons for Iowa made a spectacular run through a broken field for 60-yards and with a series of line backs Iowa went over for the first touchdown but failed to kick goal.

Iowa rushed the ball down to the Chicago goal line at the beginning of the fourth quarter. Stagg rushed his regulars back into the game. Iowa was held twice on the one yard line. Chicago recovered a fumbled punt and in a series of line plays, Captain Norgren went over for the final score. Huntington kicked goal.
Score: Chicago, 23; Iowa, 6.

Game Marred by Slugging
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 18.—Ames played a smashing game on the gridiron here this afternoon and defeated Washington university's football team 37 to 7. The game was marred by constant fighting and the visiting eleven was penalized often for slugging. Neither team scored in the first quarter, but in the second quarter, just before the half ended Captain Cowan of the Iowans went over for a touchdown and Mattison kicked goal.

In the third quarter Washington scored on a forward pass, Captain Hardaway running forty yards for a touchdown. He also kicked goal.

Three more were added to Ames' total when Kinnick dropped the ball between the posts from the thirty-five yard line. Reeve went across the line for his team's second touchdown. Mattison again kicked goal.

In the final quarter Ames continued its smashing game and Wormhoudt ran forty yards twice for as many touchdowns and Cowan raced fifty yards for the last touchdown of the game. John kicked two goals from these touchdowns.

Kansas City Wins from Drake
Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 18.—The Kansas University football team defeated the Drake university eleven on McCook field here this afternoon by the score of 11 to 9.

Although the Iowans failed to score they stubbornly resisted every play attempted by the locals and during the first half of the game their line proved equal in strength to that of their heavier opponents. Time after time the Kansasans were thrown back after making unavailing efforts to go through the Drake defense. The visitors weakened in the third quarter, however, when Kansas scored a touchdown as the result of a pass over the goal line, Steuwa to Wilson.

Kansas made its first score in the second quarter on a safety resulting from a blocked kick. Another score was made in the third period when Weidlein kicked from placement from the twenty yard line.

Nebraska Surprises Minnesota

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 18.—Nebraska today sent the Minnesota team back to Minneapolis with a 7 to 0 defeat, the result of three perfectly executed forward passes by Nebraska players beginning on the Minnesota forty yard line. The result was on over-turning of football calculations, as it was a bold corn husker rooster, before the game who would predict anything more than a tie score and the few small wagers made were generally on the Minnesota side.

The scoring came toward the end of the third quarter. Nebraska had worked the ball into the visiting team's territory and Quarterback Towle dropped back for a field goal from the thirty-yard line, but missed. Tolleson punted back and the teams lined up on Minnesota's forty yard line. Then came the series of forward passes which brought Nebraska victory in turn from Towle to Purdy, Howard to Purdy and Towle to Beck. The latter was standing almost on the line when he received the ball and went over for the touchdown.

Towle kicked a pretty goal.

Red and Blue an Easy Winner

Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—Reversing the results of their two previous contests, Pennsylvania defeated the Brown football team on Franklin field today by the score of 28 to 0.

The home eleven outclassed the Providence team in all departments of the game. Pennsylvania's goal was never in danger and throughout the contest the Brown team was able to make but one first down. The Red and Blue showed a strong defense and seldom seemed to have much trouble in advancing the ball. Pennsylvania's kicking was superior to Brown and in this department alone the Quakers gained many yards. Pennsylvania often tried the forward pass but it seldom was a success. Brown tried it twice without gain.

Army Wins Close Game

West Point, Oct. 18.—The Army defeated Colgate here today after a hard fight by a score of 7 to 6. The visitors were very strong, both on the offense and defense and scored early in the second quarter when Robinson got through Merrill and Weyand for a sixty yard run to a touchdown. The goal was missed. The Army was played to a standstill until the last five minutes of play, when the soldiers braced up and won, making a touchdown and goal just as the game ended.

Tie Score in Last Period

Lafayette, Oct. 18.—Purdue's football team tied the score with Wisconsin in the last period of the game here today when Oliphant made a sensational 70-yard run for a touchdown and kicked the goal that ended the game with the final result 7 to 7. Wisconsin had scored in the second quarter on straight line bucking, sending Tandberg over for a touchdown and Bellows kicked goal.

The contest had been counted the crucial one in the conference season for both teams and the combat from which the fight must be made. A year ago Wisconsin, who won the championship, defeated Purdue 53 to 0.

Syracuse Good on Defensive

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 18.—Syracuse proved to be a good defensive eleven against Princeton today, but poor on the aggressive and Princeton won a 13 to 0 victory over the New York state team.

The visitors showed a healthy mixture of trick plays, but the team failed to put most of them into action against the Tigers for consecutive gains. Castle's average punting for Syracuse was five to ten yards better than that of H. Baker for Princeton. The Princeton attack was based upon Streit's line plunging which was above his standard today. H. Baker's open field running and a few forward passes, most of which failed.

Play Scoreless Game

Oberlin, O., Oct. 18.—Ohio State and Oberlin played a scoreless game here today. In the first quarter Morrissey of State ran 50 yards to a touchdown which was disallowed because State was off-side. In the second quarter, Pickrell of State recovered a punt and was thrown on state's five-yard line but state worked out of danger. In the third quarter, Fisher, of Oberlin, broke up State's forward pass on Oberlin's ten-yard line, averting a score. In the fourth period Oberlin worked the ball to within scoring distance of state's line, only to lose the ball.

Holy Cross Scores on Harvard

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 18.—For first time this year a football game crossed the Harvard goal line today, but while the Holy Cross team accomplished this feat through a muffed punt they were overwhelmed by a score of 47 to 7.

The game was scarcely a minute old when Freedley let a Holy Cross punt go through his fingers. Donovan, the Holy Cross fullback gathered up the ball and dashed across the line. Brawley kicked an easy goal. For the remainder of the game the visiting line was ripped open, circled and overpowered by the Harvard backs.

Aggies Defeat Michigan U.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 18.—Out-playing their rivals in nearly every department, the Michigan Agricultural college football eleven defeated University of Michigan 12 to 7 here this afternoon.

It was a desperate grueling struggle. It was the first time that the agricultural has beaten Michigan on the gridiron.

Oklahoma Bows to Missouri

Yale Too Strong for Lehigh

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 18.—Yale defeated Lehigh here today 37 to 0. Lehigh started strong when Chenoweth ran back the kickoff 50 yards. the exchanges most of the time in Yale's favor.

Lehigh's achievement today was holding Yale for downs on the one-yard line. Yale ran the ball back immediately afterwards, however, and made the touchdown.

"Married in Haste"

PRINCE PAULOVSKI MEETS HIS WATERLOO

At The Grand Thursday

The coming attraction at the Grand Thursday is a repetition of happy surprises from the rise of the first to the fall of the final curtain. "Married in Haste" is not a "Give-us-your-kind-applause" creation, but one that shows just how we stand with some of the strange people of the world. Being of keen interest and natural conditions an object lesson of the present day existing circumstances, with revelations of astonishing but real social complications, purely moral with a gripping purpose of the most striking interest. The play is from the famous novel of Miss M. E. Braddon and is dramatized by Mr. L. B. Parker. Evolution is the keynote of progress and it affects the theatrical business the same as any other kind of endeavor, and producing managers have been forced to work their brains overtime to supply suitable plays for the fickle public's ever changing tastes. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

CATHOLIC MISSIONARY CONGRESS SOON TO OPEN IN BOSTON

Many Prominent Priests and Prelates
Will Be in Attendance.

Boston, Oct. 18.—Few events in the history of the Roman Catholic church in America have ever brought together so many priests, prelates and members of the hierarchy as the second American Catholic Missionary congress, which is to have its formal opening in this city tomorrow. The congress will continue four days. It will be held under the auspices of the Catholic Church Extension society, which was founded in Chicago on October 18, 1895, and incorporated under the laws of Michigan in December of the same year. The founders were Archbishop Quigley of Chicago, its chancellor, and Dr. Kelley, then of Michigan and now its president. The first congress was held in Boston, two years ago, but was postponed on account of the Eucharist congress held in Montreal in that year.

Recognizing the importance of a vigorous extension of the missionary work of the church, the holy see appointed the Most Reverend Bonzano, D. D., archbishop of Mitylene and apostolic delegates to the United States, as his special pontifical delegate to this congress and also sent as another representative, Monsignor Tiberghien, canon of St. John Lateran in Rome. How great the interest is which the church takes in the missionary propaganda of which this congress is an exponent, may be inferred from the fact that nearly one hundred archbishops, bishops, abbots and other high dignitaries of the Roman Catholic church have come to Boston from all sections of the United States and Canada and Mexico and even the far Philippine Islands to attend this gathering.

Among those who will take part in this congress, in addition to those already mentioned, will be archbishops Cardinal O'Connell of Boston, Quigley of Chicago, Blenk of New Orleans, Brushet of Montreal, McNell of Toronto, Christie of Oregon City, Legal of Edmonton, Alta., Messmer of Milwaukee, Pitalav of Santa Fe, Prendergast of Philadelphia, Gilroy of Oaxaca, Mexico, Allen of Mobile, and Bishops Canevin of Pittsburgh, Schrems of Toledo, Muldoon of Rockford, Ill., Byrne of Nashville, Corrigan of Baltimore, Currier of Matanzas, Cuba, Donahue of Wheeling, Dunne of Peoria, Fallon of London, Ont., Dougherty of Jaro, P. I., Fox of Green Bay, Gallagher of Galveston, Garigan of Sioux City, Garvey of Altoona, Glorieux of Boise, Granjon of Tucson, Gunn of Natchez, Hennessy of Wichita, Jones of Porto Rico; Kelley of Savannah, Kenny of St. Augustine, Latulippe of Temiskaming, Ont., Leulhan of Great Falls, LeRocque of Sherbrooke, Que., Lillis of Kansas City, Lynch of Dallas, Mats of Denver, Meerschaeft of Oklahoma, Morris of Little Rock, Morrison of Antigonish, N. S., Maes of Covington, Mathieu of Regina, Sask.; Northrup of Charleston; Nunez of Zamara, Mexico, Nussbaum of Corpus Christi, De Oca of San Luis Potosi, O'Dea of Seattle, O'Connell of Richmond, Pascal of Prince Albert, Sask., Power of St. George, N. F., Shaw of San Antonio, Tileon of Lincoln, Ward of Leavenworth, and numerous others.

The congress will open tomorrow with pontifical high mass at the cathedral, with Monsignor Bonzano as celebrant. The sermon will be preached by Cardinal O'Connell. On Sunday evening all the 200 pulpits of the churches of Greater Boston will be filled by special preachers, who will dwell especially upon the importance of mission work. At the cathedral Archbishop McNell of Toronto will officiate and Bishop Fallon of London, Ont., will deliver the sermon.

The actual session of the congress will open at Symphony hall on Monday morning. Cardinal O'Connell will preside and, if necessary, an overflow meeting will be held at Horticultural hall. The afternoon session will be in charge of the Rev. Joseph McGlinchey of Boston, who is at the head of the foreign mission section.

On Tuesday there will be two sessions. The morning session will be under the direction of the Rev. Francis C. Kelley of the home mission section, while the afternoon session will be presided over by Bishop Muldoon of Rockford, Ill., who will speak in detail on the immigration problem, which is considered of the greatest importance.

At the morning session on Wednesday Bishop Canevin of Pittsburgh will speak on the difficulties of missionary work and in the afternoon session Bishop Dougherty of Jaro, Philippine Islands, will discuss special activities in the foreign mission field and Archbishop Gilroy of Oaxaca, Mexico will speak on the Mexican immigration problem. On Wednesday evening the congress will be brought to a close with a number of mass meetings, at which an archbishop or a bishop will preside. The principal meeting, at Symphony hall, will be presided over by Cardinal O'Connell.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.
George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. GRAIN DEALERS TO SEE CANAL.
New Orleans, Oct. 18.—Two large passenger liners chartered by the National Grain Dealers' association departed today for Panama. Each vessel was loaded to capacity. The grain dealers will spend two days on the isthmus. On their return they will visit Port Limon and San Jose, Costa Rica.

TEACHERS' PENSIONS.

Are pensions in general wise? Should a state pension its workers? Should it pay pensions to teachers any more than to any other class of employees?

These are questions discussed in a bulletin just issued by the United States bureau of education. The immediate purpose of the bulletin is to describe the pension systems of Great Britain, but in the course of the study Raymond W. Sies, the author, takes occasion to discuss the principles underlying all pensions, and especially teachers' pensions in the United States.

Teachers' pensions and pension systems, according to Dr. Sies, represent one phase of what has become a universal movement among civilized peoples—a movement to "disable the superannuated and disabled individual and to rob old age of its economic terrors." Pensions for school teachers, he points out, have existed in Germany in some form or other for two or three centuries, and in other European countries for the better part of a century or more. On the continent the benefits of teachers' pensions have often been extended to include widows and orphans of teachers. In Scotland a comprehensive system has been developed, based on scientific insurance principles, which Dr. Sies considers especially valuable for the United States.

Whether pensions shall be supported in whole or in part by the state, or whether they shall be financed entirely by the teachers themselves, is a problem that has been solved differently in different countries. In Germany the state finances the entire plan, the teachers making no contributions whatsoever. In France the teachers are heavily assessed to keep the pension system going. In the United States the tendency is to ask small contributions from the teachers. As a permanent arrangement Dr. Sies favors the German plan, not because he thinks it any more generous to the teachers, but because he considers it better business for the state to finance and manage the system itself. He shows that in any event the burden is ultimately shifted to the teachers.

While admitting, therefore, that contributors may be necessary to start a substantial pension system, he believes they should be discontinued as soon as possible. In his opinion contributions from teachers as a permanent feature not only add nothing to the effectiveness of a pension plan, but they "introduce needless complexity, they are a source of constant irritation and misunderstanding, and they are responsible for a vast amount of unnecessary bookkeeping and other clerical work." Dr. Sies concludes with a strong recommendation for a non-contributory pension system for American teachers.

Bowels by Morning.

Get a 10-cent box now.
Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.—Adv.

INDIGESTION OVERCOME

Overcome by Simple Remedy.

Hurried and careless habits of eating, irregular meals and foods that do not harmonize, tend to weaken the digestive organs and result in different forms of stomach trouble.

If you are one of the unfortunate who have drifted into this condition, eat simple foods only, slowly, regularly and take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.

Mrs. H. J. Smith, Thomasville, Ga., says: "I suffered from a stomach trouble, was tired, worn out and nervous. A friend advised me to take Vinol. My stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have a perfect digestion and I wish every tired, weak woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good."

The recovery of Mrs. Smith was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cod's livers—aided by the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol. We will return the purchase money every time Vinol fails to benefit. Lee P. Allcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES.

President Harker returned Monday night from the meeting of the Schoolmasters' club, which was held in Peoria last week.

The Belles Lettres society gave a most unique entertainment Saturday night, October 18, for the benefit of the new students. Everything was well arranged and the program was carried out successfully. Further details may be had by referring to the regular news column.

Founders' Day will be observed October 23 with appropriate exercises. Full announcement of this will appear a little later.

Those planning to attend the entertainments in the Artists' course should send in their names at once for season tickets. The price for the eight numbers on the course this year will be $5.

Miss Louise C. Robinson has taken active charge of her work as physical director. She brings many new ideas that will be of great help in the building up of the department.

The new engine for the laundry has just been installed, and has proven to be ample for the work it is to do.

College of Music.

The class in analytical harmony—another of the free theoretical classes offered by the College of Music—was organized last Saturday afternoon, with an enrollment around twenty-five. The class is under the direction of Miss Hay, and is intended for those outside of the regular theoretical classes to acquaint them selves with elementary points of Harmony and Analysis, so necessary to the development of a broad musicianship.

The music students are looking forward with great interest to the opening of the Artists' course, which occurs on Nov. 3, with a joint recital by Miss Marie Edwards, pianist, and Cornelius Van Vliet, cellist. Miss Edwards will be remembered as the pianist, who did such fine solo and accompanying work some two years ago. Van Vliet, the head cellist of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, is, without doubt, the leading concert cellist in America today.

The Glee club met on Wednesday afternoon and organized for the coming year. The following officers were elected:

President—Nina Slaten.
Vice-president—Louise Hughes.
Secretary and treasurer—Johnna Onken.

The Glee club will be directed by Miss Estella McKay, the newly acquired teacher of voice, and with the large enrollment of fine voices, should have a very successful and instructive year.

JERSEY TOWN 200 YEARS OLD.
Haddonfield, N. J., Oct. 18.—Haddonfield, one of the most historic towns of New Jersey and the seat of the state government for a short period during the revolution, today celebrated the 200th anniversary of its founding. As a feature of the program a tablet was placed near the grave of Elizabeth Haddon, an English Quakeress, who was one of the first settlers here and in honor of whom the town was named.

THE STATE FAIR AS SEEN

BY MORGAN COUNTY BOY

Claude Cully Tells of Work Done at Boys' Agricultural School.

Two boys from each senatorial district are sent to the Boys' Agricultural school at the state fair. Claude Cully of this county was one from this district and has written the following interesting account of his experiences there:

During the week of October 4th to the 14th it was my pleasure as one of the representatives of Morgan county to attend the Boys' Agricultural school at the Illinois State Fair, Springfield.

I was appointed by our county superintendent, Mr. Harry C. Montgomery, of Morgan county.

At this fair, in a space of about a mile square are exhibits of the best of everything that is grown in Illinois that might be of interest to the people: Horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry, each have a building of their own and farther to the east are exhibits of all our agricultural crops grown in the state of Illinois. While the farm implements and vehicle manufacturers show their exhibits in a group of tents stationed anywhere on the grounds.

There are many places where you can get a good dinner for 25 cents. Many of these eating places are conducted by the different churches of Springfield and everything is good wholesome.

In connection with this fair the state board of agriculture has for four years now supported a boys' agricultural school. There were in the neighborhood of about 230 boys in attendance this year, each county being allowed two representatives, except Cook county, which sends eighteen boys.

The boys from the twentieth congressional district were under the care of Mr. G. B. McClelland, county superintendent of Green county, who was well liked by all his boys.

It was the purpose of this school to entice the boys in agricultural pursuits and make them better and more up to date in the farm life. To accomplish this there were five lectures given each day by professors and instructors from the college of agriculture of the University of Illinois, Urbana.

The lectures by whom given and their subjects follow:

D. O. Barto, two lectures on poultry.

H. W. Stewart, lessons in the physical improvements of soils.

J. R. Hegnauer on crop rotation.

J. J. York on horse judging, on different breeds and types.

W. H. Smith on cattle judging beef and dairy type.

E. A. White on rope splicing and knotting.

A. W. Nolan, two lectures on trees as factors in education of boys and the fighting edge.

C. E. Durst, the farmer's vegetable garden.

W. J. Carmichael, judging swine.

V. A. Place, sheep judging.

Last, but not least, was Mr. Grout's lecture on alfalfa, the coming hay crop of Illinois. In addition to these good and practical lectures were honored addresses from the following distinguished men: Governor Edward F. Dunne and United States Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman.

Besides this practical side of the school there was the enjoyable side, though in fact everything was that.

Every afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock we were given our liberty to go out over the grounds to visit all the exhibits, the aeroplane flights and racing.

One afternoon was very pleasantly spent seeing Lincoln's monument, Lincoln park, Oakland abbey, state house and arsenal. On Saturday night the domestic science girls gave a reception to the boys. The school is similar to the boys' school with the exception of the subjects taught.

Our meals were all we could ask and were under the efficient management of Mrs. Edward Craft and served by the Y. W. C. A. girls of Springfield. We all left the camp Friday evening and Saturday morning, only having had three sick, and two of those leaving for home suffering from home-sickness.

Taking it altogether I feel that my week was profitable and very pleasantly spent.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES.

The Reverend Howard D. French will address the students at the chapel exercises Tuesday morning.

The department of history and political science is indebted to Mrs. Thomas Worthington for a gift of old state bank bills, appropriately framed for the walls of the history lecture room.

Dr. Frank Stewart McKinney, '07, is continuing his medical studies in Vienna.

Professor J. G. Ames was prevented from meeting his classes on Thursday and Friday by a severe cold.

Mr. O. E. Pence, state secretary of the college Y. M. C. A., was a visitor on the campus from Monday to Wednesday. He was engaged in assisting the local College association in organizing for the work of the year. He addressed the students at the chapel exercises on Tuesday and spoke at the Y. M. C. A. meeting Wednesday evening.

Preparations have been completed for the tennis tournament among both the students and the members of the faculty. The matches will be run off as soon as the weather permits. The winner of the faculty tournament will play the winner of the student tournament.

Mrs. Jeannette S. Garrison, the head of Academy hall, who has been ill during the past week, has improved in health.

Read the Journal; 10c a week.

Before He Leaves Us

He leaves a mere boy—he comes back a man. Have a good photograph made of him before he goes—before the boyish features and expression have taken old impress.

Memory plays queer tricks on us all.

Make a date with me today and spare yourself the regrets of tomorrow.

COLE'S High Oven Range

"I beg your pardon but it don't cost more. It costs me less to run it.
"My range heats both the dining room and kitchen.
"They are always cozy and warm and it cooks our meals at the same time.
"You can't say that about yours.
"Both my heating and cooking are done with cheap fuels—either soft coal, slack or lignite.
"I am not saying anything about how my oven saves my back or how easy it is to control the draft or how quickly the stove and oven heat. But just in comfort and economy I have the best of you.
"If I were you, I would get one today. It takes up but half the space of an ordinary range and gives you two stoves in one.
"Then you will have real comfort and be saving money, too."

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

TIDE TURNS ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE

LEADING STOCKS ARE MARKED
UP FROM 1 TO 2 POINTS.

Tone of Market is Strong From Start to Finish—Chief Impetus For the Advance is Generally Conceded to be Derived From Short Covering.

(By Associated Press).

New York, Oct. 18.—The turn of tide on the stock exchange which began in a hesitating way yesterday came definitely today. Leading stocks were marked up one to two points. The tone of the market was strong from first to last. Canning common and preferred and American beet sugar were the only important exceptions to the general situation.
It was generally conceded that the chief impetus for the advance was derived from short covering.

There were indications, however, of more vigorous operations for the long account. The September statement of domestic export was above expectations, showing a gain of $19,- 000,000 over the corresponding period in 1912.

An increase of $20,000,000 in cotton accounted for the improvement.
Unofficial reports from Washington that important changes would be made in the currency bill by the senate committee were classed by speculators as good news.

The outstanding feature of the bank statement was an actual reduction in loans of $24,550,000 which reflected the freeing of credits as a result of the week's liquidation.
There was a corresponding reduction in deposits and as the amount of currency was virtually unchanged the surplus showed a substantial increase.

WHAT IS "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" TANKAGE?

It is a dark colored granular meal, made from meat residues, and it supplies the protein and phosphates necessary for compounding a balanced ration in most economical and palatable form.

It contains phosphates in proper proportion to insure strength of bone and frame work. In the corn belt bone development is a matter of serious consideration.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration.

It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil-meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuffs, or alfalfa meal.

TANKAGE is recommended by all leading experiment stations. It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sacks, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD." Analysis as above. It is the ideal feed to balance rations.

WHAT "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" TANKAGE DOES.

It develops bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby saving one-third of the feed bill, one-third of the labor, one-third of the risk, increasing profits one-third.

It grows better proportioned hogs, more meat, and more fat, hence market-topper hogs. "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" Tankage fed hogs ship well with small shrink. While in no wise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy. Manufactured by the

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION.

(This article furnished the Journal by the Local Option publicity committee.)

The attitude of the Catholic church on the temperance question from the viewpoint of a Catholic layman.—The following observations on this question are by one who has been a member of the historic church during all of his life, and has heard almost daily her stand not only on this but many other questions misrepresented, or to say the least, not understood by many who profess to be well informed on general subjects. The purpose of this article is not to engage in any controversy, but to state the exact truth as it stands revealed on the pages of history.

It is a well known fact that the Catholic church is a very ancient institution and has witnessed many changes in the manners and customs of the world, yet her claim is that she teaches the same doctrine of faith and morals today as she did in her infancy, and also that the same doctrines are taught to each and every nation where she exists; consequently whatever she teaches on the temperance question in this country she also teaches in every other country in the world.

That being the case it will only be necessary to inquire as to her attitude on any question of morals in this country to reveal her position in every other country, and vice versa.

For the purpose of comparison I am going to quote from a decree of one of her popes whose pontificate was near the close of the third century. It would seem that this question needed attention even at that early day, and also that it was regarded as a moral rather than an economic question. Pope Eutychianus more than sixteen hundred years ago used the following words in condemning the evil of drunkenness: "All Christians must guard themselves by all means against the great evil of drunkenness, from which all vices emanate. Wherefore we have decreed that he who should refuse to avoid this evil must be excommunicated until he shall have made satisfactory amendment." Of course this is very ancient history, but I desire to call the attention of those who read this article to the fact that there has been no modification in the severity with which the church regards the traffic, and I believe you will agree with me when the latest decrees of the church through her councils and her chief pastors are studied. Here are some of the modern enactments of the church regarding the saloon question.

The second plenary council held in Baltimore in the year 1866 had this to say: "Since the very worst scandals owe their origin to excess in drink, we urge pastors and we implore them for the love of Jesus Christ, to devote all their energies to the extermination of the vice of intemperance, to that end we deem worthy of praise the zeal of those who the best way to guard against the excess, pledge themselves to total abstinence. And again: 'Let pastors frequently warn their flocks to shun drink houses, and let them repel from the sacraments liquor dealers who encourage the abuse of drink, especially on Sunday.' These words sound very much like those uttered sixteen hundred years ago. Still it may be possible that some expression still modern is required to convince people of the warfare always urged against the saloon by the church. We have a still more drastic enactment, and at a later date. The third plenary council of Baltimore, held in the year 1884, issued the following decree: 'We admonish Catholics engaged in the sale of alcoholic liquors to consider seriously how many and how great are the dangers and the occasions of sin with which their business is surrounded. Let them, if possible, choose some more honorable way of making a living. And if they find it impossible to quit, then let them strive with all their might to remove the occasions of sin from themselves and from others. Let them not sell drink either to minors or to those who they foresee will go to excess. Let them keep their saloons closed on the Lord's day. Let them at no time permit on their premises blasphemy or obscene language.

But, if through their action or with their co-operation religion is dishonored, and men are led to ruin, let them remember that there is an Avenger in Heaven who will certainly demand of them terrible retribution.' To supplement this declaration the council issued a pastoral letter to the priests and laity of the United States which further deals with this question. The letter said:

"There is one way of profaning the Lord's day which is so prolific of evil results that we deem it our duty to utter against it a special condemnation. This is the practice of selling beer or other liquors on Sunday, or of frequenting places where they are sold. This practice tends more than any other to turn the day of the Lord into a day of dissipation—to use it as an occasion to breed intemperance. With the hope that Sunday laws on this subject will not be relaxed, but even more rigidly enforced, we implore all Catholics, for the love of God and country, never to take part in such Sunday traffic, nor to patronize or countenance it. And we not only direct the attention of all pastors to the repression of this abuse, but we also call upon them to induce all of their flocks that may be engaged in the sale of liquors to abandon as soon as possible the dangerous traffic, and to embrace a more becoming way of making a living."

To understand the full significance of these declarations it must be borne in mind that the councils held in Baltimore consisted of all the archbishops and bishops of the United States. These decrees were not hastily adopted, but on the contrary retrieved the most careful deliberation and in addition to that they were sent to Rome, the center of Catholic unity, and were approved there, showing that they accorded with the teaching of the Catholic church throughout the world.

Perhaps the case of Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul will serve to illustrate the attitude of the church on this question in all of its many phases. Archbishop Ireland, as everyone knows, is one of the most remarkable men of our times, by reason of his wonderful versatility, and the remarkable success that has attended all his efforts for the betterment of his fellow men. He enjoys the three-fold distinction of being an ecclesiastic, a soldier, and man of affairs. Soon after his ordination as a priest he heeded the call of his country and went upon the battlefield in her service. At the close of his military career he took up his church work, to which his life has been dedicated, and as he explained it himself, he thought he would be honoring his Divine Master by developing the American republic. At the beginning of his career his state and the entire northwest were little better than a trackless wilderness. His vast colonization schemes successfully carried out are today the wonder of the world, and he shares with James J. Hill the proud title, "The empire builder of the northwest." Early in his work he foresaw that it would be of little avail to create the vast industries he had in mind if his efforts were to be forestalled by the brewers and their allies, the saloon keepers, consequently he gave them battle on the two-fold ground, as a citizen and as a priest. He fought them as a citizen on the economic phases, and as a priest on the moral issue. It is doubtful if any man in this nation ever received greater abuse. All the tactics that were ever invented by the powers of evil were used in an effort to destroy him. He who had served on the battlefields for his country was charged with violating the genius of the constitution in denying personal liberty to allow men to make beasts of themselves. He who had dedicated his life to his Master was charged with interfering with affairs that concerned the state alone. He by whose efforts the vast solitudes of the northwest were turned into prosperous farms and steadily cities, was charged with interfering with the "business interests."

Encompassed on every hand and challenged to define his attitude on the saloon question, he accepted the challenge and chose to make known his attitude as a bishop of the Catholic church. And here is what he said: "The Catholic church is absolutely and irrevocably opposed to drunkenness and to drunkard markets. In vain do we profess to work for souls if we do not labor to drive out an evil which is daily begetting by the ten thousand and peopling hell. In vain we boast of civilization and liberty if we do not labor to exterminate intemperance. Education, the elevation of the masses, liberty, all that the age admires, is set at naught by this dreadful evil. The individual conscience is the first arm in opposing it, but the individual conscience has to be strengthened and supplemented by law. The claim of saloon keepers to freedom in their traffic is the claim to spread disease, sin and pauperism."

There does not appear to be very much comfort for the saloon men in the foregoing words, and the only refuge they could find, they thought, would be to humiliate the archbishop by getting an expression from Rome that would in some degree mollify their ruffled spirits. Their hope was that the archbishop would be cautioned to use a little discretion in discussing such a tender subject as personal liberty. And here is how their hopes were fulfilled. Pope Leo XIII addressed a letter to Archbishop Ireland, in which he used the following language, speaking of the duties of pastors to advance the moral issue:

"But greatest of all in this matter should be the zeal of the priests who, as they are called to instruct the people in the Word of Life and to mould them to Christian morality, should also and above all walk before them in the practice of virtue. Let pastors, therefore, do their best to drive intemperance from the fold of Christ by assiduous preaching and exhortation, and to shine before all as models of abstinence, that so many calamities with which this vice threatens both church and state may be averted."

"As a pledge of our good will we will bestow on you and all who labor with you, the apostolic benediction."

Given from Rome from St. Peters, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year 1887, the tenth year of our pontificate

Leo XIII., Pope.

In the above words the course that has been pursued by the faithful archbishop who has suffered so many indignities for his efforts to enforce the teachings of his church on this momentous question. The record of the church on this subject alone would fill volumes, and every line in every volume would agree with every other line, for the reason that the stand she has taken is based on the eternal rock of principle. If men would heed her teachings as voiced by her councils and her chief pastors, there would not be any danger that the gates of hell will be unloosed on election day in Jacksonville.

ILLINOIS WINS FROM NORMAL

LOCALS ANNEX EAST GAME AWAY FROM HOME.

Touchdown Made By I. C. After First Five Minutes of Play—Final Score 22 to 7.—Bradley Comes For Contest Here Next Saturday.

Coach Harmon and his eleven varsity men meandered to Normal Saturday where they met the Normal university team of that place and defeated them in a fast game by a score of 22 to 7. Both teams played hard, Illinois showing better team work throughout. The contest gave Coach Harmon an excellent chance to see what his men could do under fire, as the mud game at Lincoln was almost a farce. There were no particular stars on either team during the game. Illinois will practice hard the coming week in anticipation of the game with Bradley next Saturday.

Story of the Game.

Alford won the toss and chose to defend the west goal, with the sun at his back, and favored by a light wind and a gradual slope of the field. Benjamin kicked off for Normal to Illinois. Ball was down on the 30 yard line. From that point Illinois worked the ball down the field by short, but steady gains until Alford went over for the first touchdown, after about five minutes play. Frisbie kicked goal, making score 7 to 0.

Normal again kicked off to Illinois, the oval was arried up and down the field, neither team making gains consistently. Finally Illinois secured the ball by a series of line plunges and off tackle plays carried the ball to Normal's 20-yard line where Alford broke through right tackle and shaking off several tacklers, carried the ball over for a second touchdown. Frisbie missed goal, score 13 to 0.

Normal determined to try carrying the ball so chose to have Illinois kick to them. They carried the ball to the center of the field, where Schneider skirted Illinois' right end, eluded Stewart in the back field, scoring a touchdown, with ease. Schneider kicked goal, score 13 to 7. There was nothing much doing the rest of this quarter nor in the second quarter.

In the third quarter Normal chose to have Illinois kick to them. Normal was unable to make any headway against the strong Illinois defense. Finally becoming desperate in their efforts to advance the ball, they resorted to a great deal of forward passes. Illinois intercepted one of the passes near the center of the field, then with the same tactics which they had employed in making the first two touchdowns, they again carried the ball over, Alford scoring the touchdown. Frisbie kicked goal. Score 20 to 7.

Neither team threatened the other's goal during the remainder of the third quarter. Shortly after the beginning of the fourth quarter, Stewart sent the ball well into Normal's territory with one of his long twisting spiral kicks, which the Normal backs were not able to handle. With the ball on Normal's twenty yard line, in Normal's possession, Benjamin dropped back to kick out of danger. Center passed the ball over his head and it rolled behind the goal line, where Benjamin was caught by the Illinois end before he could bring the ball back across the goal line. This constituted a safety, which counted two points for Illinois, making the final score 22 to 7.

Public Improvements.

All public improvements in Jacksonville cost $16,920.48 during the twelve months of 1912. This is an improvement over some previous years but it does not compare very favorably with cities of our size.

The new cement walks on the west side of Prairie street have long been needed, and property owners that fought it would not now be without it. Such improvements mean a proportional increase for their respective properties. The city administration's work in compelling the laying of good walks will excite praise not condemnation.

Conventions.

Jacksonville in 1914 will claim some distinction as a convention city. If the members of every social, religious, political, laboring, organization would take enough pride in their own city to want their friends and fellow members to visit Jacksonville and her institutions, we would have many more to entertain. There is no class which is not benefitted from conventions for what is better than open pocket-books coming into the town.

Made in Jacksonville Show.

There are many uninformed citizens who have the mistaken notion that Jacksonville is not a manufacturing city. In compiling a list of possible exhibitors for a Home-Made Products Show one hundred and twenty-five concerns are able to take part, by making some kind of an exhibit. The secretary has not found a single person who did not think such a show would be educational for our people and also a good advertisement to persons living elsewhere.

A committee is at work on the proposition and there is much likelihood that sometime during the winter Jacksonville will see herself in a new light. When the value of the twelve leading firms have annual sales amounting to over $2,500,000.00, the hundred other small firms should run the total up nearly double that amount.

The Efficient Citizen.

Caesar Augustus, an efficient citizen of the early days, said: "I found Rome mud and left it marble."

Augustus did nothing of the kind.

No man ever builded or transformed a city himself.

Caesar Augustus directed a campaign of education which led his fellow Romans to appreciate the money value of the physical development and advancement of the Metropolis. Rome was waiting for a civic leader when Caesar Augustus "found it." It needed but an efficient leader to pull itself out of the mire into marble.

Augustus showed the citizens how to work efficiently at it until the job was done.

Thus Rome lifted herself from mud to marble.

Jacksonville needs leaders among her business men who will dedicate themselves to the same possible task.

Our Retail Trade.

Judging from the railroad fares related at the office and the out of town shoppers arriving on trains retail trade conditions are rapidly improving. There is always room for improvement and the best way to proceed is to provide your Retail Merchants Committee with ample funds to spend in judicious advertising. Our great service which the Chamber of Commerce can do is to make Jacksonville a popular trading city. Trade will not come without an effort and the merchant who sets back of his desk and is too cautious to spend a little money advertising can't expect much out of town business.

Noted Minister Speaks—Washington Gladdon of Cleveland, Ohio.

The following article by this well known Divine, will attract more than passing notice; because of the prominent place he occupies in his own church, and as an author on social and religious subjects. Few people of this city have realized until this present campaign, that there is really a division among the churches as to the method of regulation, or handling, or dealing with the liquor question. The following pertinent message speaks for itself: "Saloon a Social Need."

"The need of providing social opportunity and safe places of resort for those on whom the saloons are forced to close their doors is too obvious for argument. The saloon, as at present existing, is by no means wholly evil. There are great differences among them; some of them are far worse than others; in some of them there is not much intoxication, and those who frequent them find in their comfort and pleasant associations, more attraction than in their convivial features. Many men, no doubt, spend many hours in such places which they might better spend in their homes; but there are multitudes who have no homes and to whom some decent and inviting place of resort is a great boon. The saloon keepsers supply the demand. If we close the saloons and make little or no provision for such needs, we shall array against ourselves, tens of thousands of decent people who will regard our action as tyrannical and inhuman. I think that the temperance forces, in waging this war of extermination against the saloon, and making almost no effort at all to put something better in its place, are making a fatal blunder. I am as sure as I can be that there will be serious and fatal reaction. Sixty-one counties have voted out the saloons. In almost none of them have there been any attempt to make any provision for those needs to which the saloon ministers. It is a striking illustration of the fact that the children of the light are far less wise in their generation than the children of this world."

The presence in this city of a social welfare expert, who has the endorsement of men prominent in our public and national life, makes the visit of the Rev. W. A. Gardner of more than passing interest. He has been a close student of social problems for 20 years. Beginning his work in the state institutions in the east, becoming deeply interested in the problem of labor and social conditions generally. It has brought him face to face with the causes of our social unrest; the problem of our cities; the recreation problem; the liquor problem; the causes of crime, drunkenness, vice; and kindred problems of American life. Al- though identified with the church as a minister, he has found time to take an active part in the affairs of men. While conducting a large institutional church at Providence, Rhode Island, he was elected head chaplain of the M. W. of A. At the Indianapolis convention, 1903, the following year and the greater part of 1905 he was assistant state chaplain in Rhode Island state institutions. During a part of this time he acted as public censor for the city commissioners and for them investigated most of our large cities in the east and middle west. The following 4 years he traveled in the south, studying the customs and problems of the south land. He was invited to take up chautauqua work and conducted a 13 weeks' campaign in Kentucky in 1909. The following year he was engaged by the Kansas City bureau and spent 5 months of that year in the field in public speaking. He gave a part of his time regularly to his church, but for the past 2 years his time has been devoted exclusively to public work. He is a firm believer in the church but is convinced that some of the Protestant churches have made a great mistake in departing from the teaching of Christ, in their anxiety to settle the vexed liquor problem, he stands by the Book.

He is a member in good standing of the Musicians Union and affiliated with the A. F. of L., a member of Doric lodge No. 33, A. F. & A. M., at Auburn, Rhode Island; of Carlisle Commandery, K. T. No. 19, at Carlisle, Ky., and Caswell, Consistory No. 5, Kansas City, Kan., S. R. M.

Mr. Gardner expresses the hope that the people of Jacksonville shall carefully and impartially consider the teaching of the Bible on the liquor question and compare these with the utterance of the average church; and also, consider the condition of the city at the present time, the drinking in the homes of the city, the keg parties, the alarming number of young men, minors, who are in these parties and who send off for beers and liquors continually. He insists that there is quite as much being drunk as at any time in the history of the city, and that there is more drunkenness than formerly; as they order by wholesale and drink by wholesale; and that under the circumstances with the great majority of our people keeping such beverages, the only sensible and decent thing to do is to issue a small number of licenses; bring this matter out into the light where we can watch it rather than leave it in the dark, and try to deny its existence and quiet our conscience by a no license vote. Mr. Gardner wishes to say to the people of Jacksonville that he has been forced to his present convictions as the result of his study of social conditions, and the church member who refuses to recognize the existence of the liquor traffic and refuses to license it, must remember that he is responsible for the conditions which exist under no license. The Christian must, also, face this question: "What is the difference between buying from the Wholesaler or buying from the Retailer, in principle? Only a very small number of our people, anywhere dare to take the unscriptional position, that it is a sin to take a drink of wine or beer. If we should listen to the declaration of some of the Protestant churches, this would seem the only conclusion. Either the church is right, or the Bible; for they do not agree, and the Christian men and women of this town must make their choice on this question of morals, and rest that choice, that decision, either on the authority of the church or the authority of the Bible. Mr. Gardner will be glad to meet at all times people of this city and discuss this matter with them. Already he has had a number of private conferences with leading business men on the moral side of this question. Committees of men or of women can make arrangements for conferences afternoon or evening until further notice.

If the ladies' clubs of this city desire to hear this matter discussed by Mr. Gardner some afternoon at a special meeting, he would be glad to present the matter to them.

Being a welfare expert, his advice on social problems should be worth hearing at least. It is not a question as to whether people will drink. They are drinking now, here in this city more than 60 per cent of them. It is a question of method. It is a question of expediency. What do we gain by compelling our people to trade with the mail-order house—a Sears-Roebuck business method? What do we gain compelling our people to buy from the Wholesaler and to drink more? Are we fighting for Temperance? If so, we would do the right thing to regulate the sale and keep it away from the home and children. At present, there are strictly speaking, as many unlicensed saloons as there are keg parties, bootleggers, and blind tigers. And when we add to this the Arenzville suit-case brigade, the Beardstown hikers, and the Berlin special delivery, we get some idea of how wet this so-called dry town really is. Then we have quite a number who go each week end and fill up, a load on the inside and one on the outside (two too many) and then return most any old time, Saturday, Sunday or Monday. Of course, the weekend handle their liquor more properly. They have it in their cellars, most of them. But they refuse to help the poor man secure license, where he could satisfy his wants for a nickle. Oh, yes; there are lots of cultured, well-to-do folks who say the poor man can't afford a nickle a day. How long before these aristocrats will try to regulate the rest of the poor man's program. Then through no-license we have a fine flock of "snow-birds," "snuffers" who use cocaine, and if you doubt there are over 100 besides 36 other dope users, ask your druggists, doctors, or as the Courier puts it, when in doubt, ask the Chief of Police.

Watch this space. A new one will appear from time to time.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Jacksonville friends of Ellis J. Newman have received announcement of his approaching marriage. The invitations were issued by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Granstrom announcing the marriage of their sister Miss Camille Roch to Mr. Newman, the ceremony to take place Tuesday, Oct. 23, at the Granstrom home, 1624 Hague avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota.

Mrs. J. Thompson Sharpe entertained a company of children Saturday afternoon for her son, Maskell Sharpe. The children were entertained at Luttrell's theatre after which they were taken to Vickery & Merrigan's where decorated tables were arranged for them, and refreshments were served. The children in the party were: Ruth Bradley, Marjorie McMurphy, Isabel Ames, Ruth Reynolds, Irene Bryant, Frances Waddell, Mary Strawn, Ethel Cornick, Ella Eugenia Woodman, Katherine Wilson, Aurelius Vosseller, Paul French, Ward Montgomery, Lester Cornick, Hugh Wilson, Lee Bryant, Arthur Green, Joseph Whitely, Felix Farrell, Thomas Brady and Maskell Sharpe.

Saturday was the 26th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Obermeyer and the event was celebrated by a dinner at the family residence on North Church street. His parent, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Obermeyer of Winchester were present. Dr. A. B. Obermeyer of Arcadia and Mr. Obermeyer's sister, Mrs. A. H. Owings of Litchfield. The occasion was also the birthday of Mrs. Owings.

The Ladies Booster Club of the United Commercial Travelers held a very successful autumn dance Saturday night in the U. C. T. hall on the south side of the square, which was largely attended. The hall was very prettily arranged with autumn decorations and the colors of the order and an orchestra furnished a most delightful dancing program. A feature of the entertainment was a fortune telling booth, which caused no little merriment. Mrs. Roy Craig and Mrs. George McKee presided at the frappe bowl. The committee in charge of the event is to be congratulated for the successful manner in which they conducted the entertainment. The committee was composed of Mrs. J. M. Conover, Mrs. L. B. Crowe, Mrs. T. H. Haskell and Mrs. J. A. Munson.

An attic party was given at the old Black homestead on East State street Saturday. Now an attic party is something new in social affairs and really means that members of the Black family from Jacksonville, Chicago and Duluth gathered at the old homestead which has just been sold after an occupancy of forty-eight years, to look over old letters, books and other belongings and decide what to save and what to destroy. Practically the entire day was spent there, a luncheon being served at 1 o'clock by Hood & Larson. Among the most interesting belongings that Dr. Arthur Black unearthed were two wooden bicycles and he took one of them out and rode it around the yard. Members of the family here as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Black are Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Black, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Black, Mrs. Mark Baldwin, Miss Clara Black, Barbara Black and Helen Baldwin.

A Queer Bargain.

Some young men from Boston applied to an old fisherman up in the country to see if he could get some bait. He thought he could and started off. Three hours afterward he appeared with a ten quart pail full of angle worms. The boys were alarmed lest there should not be money enough in the party for such a wealth of bait, but they put on a bold front and some one asked, "How much do we owe you?" "Well, I don't rightly know," answered the old man; "the ground is kinder solid and the worms is far down, and it's been hard on my back to dig 'em, but I've half a mind to go fishin' myself tomorrow, an' if you'll give me half the bait we'll call it square."

Alpine Egg Dance.

A curious eastern custom has been observed for many centuries in the western Alps. One hundred eggs are distributed over a level space covered with sand and the young men and women perform a dance around them. If a couple are fortunate enough to finish the dance without breaking an egg it is taken as a token of the compatibility of their temperaments and they are betrothed.

The Rocks and the Seagulls.

A Dover correspondent reports a curious incident which was witnessed at a farm at Elms Vale, on the confines of the borough. A flock of seagulls flying inland had taken possession of a newly sown field and were pecking away, when a still more numerous flock of rooks swooped down and attacked the gulls. The rooks, being about two to each gull, flapped and rushed the gulls until they withdrew to a field some distance off. The victorious rooks then proceeded to enjoy themselves in the field, having first set what were apparently sentries along the side of the field. It was amusing to watch these sentries hustling away any gull which strayed too near. It has been noted by naturalists that this setting of sentries is in accordance with the habits of rooks.—London B. stander
